The European Labour Authority

The European Labour Authority ('the Authority' or 'ELA') is a new Union decentralised body in the area of cross-border labour mobility, currently in its initial start-up phase.

Its aim is to facilitate access for individuals and employers to information on their rights and obligations; support cooperation between EU countries in the cross-border enforcement of relevant Union law, including by facilitating joint inspections; and mediate and facilitate a solution in cases of cross-border disputes between national authorities.

The European Parliament and the Council recently adopted the Regulation establishing the European Labour Authority. The text currently awaits publication in the Official Journal of the EU.

The Authority should reach its full operational capacity by 2024. The European Commission is responsible for the initial set up phase until the Authority is sufficiently staffed and ready to fulfil its mandate.

¹ Depending on the availability of the new offices of the ELA in Bratislava, the successful jobholder may be required to take duties for a limited period of several months in Brussels, hosted at premises of the European Commission.

² This estimate takes into account the coefficient of correction applicable to Slovakia, currently equal to 78.5% (compared to Brussels). Additional allowances, as well as deductions for the community tax, contributions for medical insurance, pension and unemployment insurance are not included in this estimate.

Further information on the Authority is available on:

The job

The European Commission, on behalf of the ELA, is launching a vacancy notice with a view to establishing a reserve list of Temporary Agents for the position of Procurement Officer³.

1. Profile

Under the supervision of the Head of Sector – Finance and Procurement, the Procurement Officer will be responsible for planning and implementing all necessary procurement processes and subsequent contracts from the setting-up and initial operation of the ELA. He/she will also be involved in other financial and budgetary processes as necessary.

1.1 Tasks

The Procurement Officer's tasks will include, inter alia:

- Develop and update procurement related procedures, guidelines, templates, checklists, and any other required documents;
- Contribute to ensure that the ELA procurement processes are implemented in accordance with the Financial Regulation and other relevant rules and regulations;
- Provide training, advice and support on general procurement issues to ELA staff;
- Develop annual procurement plans and ensure follow-up of their implementation, including regular reporting;
- Assist in planning procurement procedures, including advising on the appropriate procedure and identifying timelines and setting up the procedure administration;
- Contribute to the drafting of the tender specifications and publish the calls for tenders;
- Organise the opening and evaluation of tenders, and draft the evaluation reports, award decisions and contracts;
- Contribute to systematic filing and organisation of documents to meet ex-ante and ex-post publication requirements related to ELA procurement;
- Support ELA participation in inter-institutional procurement procedures and subsequent contracts;
- Contribute to the preparation of documents and reports on procurement;
- Assist in the preparation of and provide support during internal and external audits related to procurement;

³ N.B. Any action following the publication of this vacancy, including invitations to interviews and at a later stage the offer of a job contract, is subject to the entry into force of the ELA Regulation, after its publication of in the Official Journal of the EU, and the availability of the budget for the Authority.

- Liaise with the EU Network of Procurement officers;
- Perform other relevant tasks as deemed necessary in the interest of the service.

Qualifications and experience required

2. Eligibility criteria

By the closing date of this vacancy notice candidates must:

- Supportive and helpful approach to others, with co-operative and service-oriented attitude;
- Sense of integrity, initiative and responsibility;
- Drafting skills;
- Communication and interpersonal skills.

The selection process

4. How to apply

You must apply through the EU CV Online system⁶. Only complete applications registered via EU CV Online before the deadline will be considered. Applications must include a motivation letter and a CV, both submitted in English to be considered.

Please note that this selection procedure is published in parallel with selection procedures for other profiles at the ELA. You are encouraged to apply for the positions(s) that best suit(s) your profile and experience. To be able to apply via EU CV Online, you must first create an account or sign in to an existing account. If not done already, you must first fill in the electronic CV. Once the CV is completed, you may choose and apply to the call for expressions of interest of your choice. You are advised to fill out all relevant fields of the application. All technical questions concerning EU CV Online must be sent through the contact page of EU CV Online.

Before applying, you should carefully check whether you meet all the eligibility criteria.

It is your responsibility to complete your online registration in time. We strongly advise you not to wait until the last few days before applying, since heavy internet traffic or a problem with the internet connection could lead to your online registration being interrupted before you complete it, thereby obliging you to repeat the whole process. Once the deadline has passed, you will no longer be able to register.

No supporting documents are required at this stage – these will be required later from candidates invited to interviews/ tests (see section 5.3).

On completion of your online registration, you will receive on screen a registration number, which you must note. Once you receive this number, the registration process is finished. This will be your reference number in all matters concerning your application. If you do not receive a number, your application has not been registered!

⁶ EU CV Online is the tool used by the European Commission for recruitment of staff on temporary basis.

An acknowledgement of your application will be sent to the e-mail address indicated in your application. It is your responsibility to verify that you provide the correct e-mail address.

Deadline for applications: 6 August 2019 (12:00 Brussels time)

You may apply at:

https://ec.europa.eu/dgs/personnel_administration/open_applications/CV_Cand/index.cfm?fuseaction=premierAcces

If you have a disability that prevents you from registering online, you may submit your application (CV and letter of motivation) on paper by registered mail⁷, postmarked no later than the closing date for registration. All subsequent communication between the Commission and you will be by post. In this case, you must enclose with your application a certificate attesting your disability, issued by a recognised body. You should also set out on a separate sheet of paper any special arrangements you think are needed to make it easier for you to take part in the selection.

If you require more information, please send an e-mail to EMPL-ELA-HR@ec.europa.eu.

5. Steps of the selection procedure

5.1 Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the selection committee will check the submitted applications against eligibility criteria described in Section 2. Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the selection criteria under Section 3.

5.2 Initial assessment of the applications

The selection committee will assess each eligible application according to the qualifications and training, professional experience and motivation of the candidate with respect to the profile described in Section 1.1.

5.3 The assessment phase

Following the initial assessment of the applications, the most suitable candidates for the post will be invited to the assessment phase, to be held in Brussels. This phase involves an interview with the selection committee and tests related to the field of the vacancy. This phase will enable the selection committee to carry out an assessment of the pre-selected candidates according to the selection criteria described in Section 3.

⁷ European Commission, Directorate General for Employment, Social Affairs & Inclusion, ELA Establishment Plan, Rue de Spa 3 04/106, B-1049 Brussels.

The assessment phase will be conducted in English.

Pre-selected candidates invited will be requested to submit, at the time of the assessment phase, a non-certified copy of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience, clearly indicating the starting and finishing dates, the function(s) and the exact nature of the duties carried out.

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate(s) will be required to provide original versions of documents proving the eligibility criteria.

5.4 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The candidates' application will be checked against supporting documents provided in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is established that the information in an application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process.

You will also be disqualified if you:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.5 Reserve list

The selection committee will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list. This draft will be submitted to the interim Executive Director of the ELA for approval. The adopted reserve list will be valid until 31 December 2020. Reserve lists may be extended by decision of the ELA. Prior to being offered a post, a candidate on the reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by the ELA (e.g. including a further interview).

Inclusion on a reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in the ELA.

Other important information

6. General information

6.1 Equal opportunities

The European Commission, on behalf of the ELA, applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds.

6.2 Selection committee

A selection committee will be appointed. Please note that the selection committee's internal proceedings are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden.

6.3 Approximate timetable

The selection process may take some months to be completed; no information will be released during this period. The selection panel intends to finalise the recruitment process for this vacancy by end of October 2019, with a view for the selected candidate to take office by end 2019 / early 2020.

6.4 Recruitment conditions / Career

The successful candidate may be offered a contract as a temporary agent in accordance with the conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities for an initial period of 5 years, renewable once. After the second period, the contract may be renewed for an indefinite period.

The place of employment is Bratislava, Slovakia. However, depending on the availability of the new offices of the ELA in Bratislava, the successful jobholder may be required to take duties for a period of several months in Brussels, hosted at premises of the European Commission.

6.5 Remuneration

The successful candidate who is offered a contract of employment will, on his / her entry into service, be placed in step 1 or step 2 of the AD5 grade, according to the length of his / her professional experience. The basic monthly salaries for grade AD5 Officers, as at 1 January 2019, in Bratislava, are:

- Step 1: € 3.892
- Step 2: € 4.056

Please note that the estimates above includes the coefficient of correction applicable to Slovakia, currently equal to 78.5% (compared to Brussels). In addition to the basic salary, staff members may be entitled to various allowances. These may include:

- Household allowance (e.g. if you have a dependent child or you are married and your spouse's income is below a defined threshold);
- Dependent child allowance (e.g. if you have a child under the age of 18 or between 18 and 26, if in specified training programme);
- Education allowances (in very specific cases) or Payment of the education fees applicable to selected educational institutions);
- Expatriation allowance (16% of the sum of basic salary and other applicable allowances).

The salary is subject to a Community tax deducted at source, as well as contributions for medical insurance, pension and unemployment insurance

6.6 Protection of personal data

As the body responsible for organising the competition, the European Commission, on behalf of the ELA, ensures that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Union, L 295/39 of 21 November 2018). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

6.7 Appeal procedure

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, at the following address:

European Commission
DG Employment, Social Affairs & Inclusion
ELA Establishment Group
Selection procedure: Ref. ELA/AD/2019/003
Rue de Spa 3, Office 04/110
1049, Brussels,
Belgium

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations as modified by Council Regulation No 723/2004 of 22 March 2004 published in the Official Journal of the European Union L 124 of 27 April 2004 – <http://europa.eu/eur-lex>) starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.
