

SEASONAL WORK A GUIDE FOR EMPLOYERS

EU CITIZENS HAVE THE RIGHT TO LOOK FOR EMPLOYMENT IN ANOTHER EU COUNTRY, AND:

- be employed under the same conditions as Member State nationals receive the same assistance from national employment offices
- have access to the same level of social protection as other insured

IF YOU EMPLOY SEASONAL WORKERS

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO:

Hire foreign employees

Manage their work

Give work related instructions and orders

Legally dissolve an employment contract

YOU HAVE THE DUTY TO:

Verify the workers' identity. Non-EU citizens should have a work/residence permit

Provide workers with the conditions of work in writing

Comply with contracts, agreements, and applicable labour law

Provide decent working and living conditions

Promote a good working environment & treat all employees equally

Pay wages in accordance with the national rules and make sure deducted costs, e.g. for housing or meals are in line with the rules

Ensure that the permitted number of hours per week are not exceeded and that the employees get enough breaks

Keep records of their hours worked

Provide a holiday allowance

Issue pay slips to your workers

Protect your employees from risks at work and ensure occupational health and safety, including related to COVID-19
