The selection process

4. How to apply

Please note that this selection procedure is published in parallel with the selection procedure ELA/AD/2023/02 for Labour Mobility Officer – Operational Analysis and risk assessment. You can only apply for one of the positions: Operational analysis or Strategic Analysis. The system will not allow you to apply for both positions. Although candidates can only apply to one profile, ELA can recruit candidates placed on any of the reserve lists. You are encouraged to apply for the position that best suit your profile and experience.

You must apply through the EU CV Online system<sup>1011</sup> via this link:
https://ec.europa.eu/dgs/personnel\_administration/open\_applications/CV\_Cand/index.cfm?fuse\_action=premierAcces&langue=EN

Before applying, you should carefully check whether you meet all the eligibility criteria.

Applications must include a motivation letter and a CV, both submitted in English to be considered. Applications not submitted in English will be excluded from the selection procedure.

To be able to apply via EU CV Online, you must first create an account or sign in to an existing account. If not done already, you must first fill in the electronic CV. Once the CV is completed, you may choose and apply to the call for expressions of interest of your choice. You are advised to fill out ALL relevant fields of the application. For guidance, please refer to the guidelines for applications to candidates in ELA's website.

Only complete applications registered via EU CV Online before the deadline will be considered. Please note that the selection committee can only take into account the information provided by the candidate via EU CV Online. No information via email will be taken into consideration.

It is your responsibility to complete your online registration in time. We strongly advise you not to wait until the last few days before applying, since heavy internet traffic or a problem with the internet connection could lead to your online registration being interrupted before you complete it, thereby obliging you to repeat the whole process.

After a correct submission of an application, you will receive an automated acknowledgement of receipt of your application to the email account indicated in your application and, you will receive on screen a registration number. If you do not receive a number, it means that your application has not been registered. Please note it is your responsibility to verify that you provided the correct e-mail address.

All technical questions concerning EU CV Online must be sent through the contact page of EU CV Online.

Once the deadline has passed, you will no longer be able to apply.

Deadline for applications: 9th March 2023 at midday (12:00, Bratislava time)

<sup>10</sup> EU CV Online is the tool used by the European Commission for recruitment of staff on temporary basis.

<sup>11</sup> If you have a disability that prevents you from registering online, you may submit your application (CV and letter of motivation) on paper by registered mail<sup>11</sup>, postmarked no later than the closing date for registration. All subsequent communication between ELA and you will be by post. In this case, you must enclose with your application a certificate attesting your disability, issued by a recognised body. You should also set out on a separate sheet of paper any special arrangements you think are needed to make it easier for you to take part in the selection.

If you require more information, please send an e-mail to: recruitment@ela.europa.eu.

5. Steps of the selection procedure

5.1. Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the selection committee will check the submitted applications against the eligibility criteria described in Section 2.

The selection committee will analyse if the application was submitted in English. Applications not submitted in English will be excluded from the selection procedure.

Applications satisfying all these conditions will then be initially assessed against the selection criteria under Section 3.

5.2. Initial assessment of the eligible applications

The selection committee will assess each eligible application with reference to the selection criteria (“Essential” and “Advantageous”) described in Section 3.

Upon completion of the assessment, the selection committee will establish a shortlist of candidates to be invited to the assessment phase.

Please note that once the pre-assessment phase is completed, shortlisted candidates will be invited to the assessment phase. The remaining candidates will be notified, by email, that their application will no longer be taken into consideration.

5.3. The assessment phase

Following the initial assessment of the applications, shortlisted candidates will be invited to the assessment phase, which will be held online. The assessment phase will be conducted in English.

Details of the date and time of the assessment will be communicated to the shortlisted candidates in due time.

The assessment phase involves an interview with the selection committee and one or more test(s) related to the field of the vacancy. This phase will enable the selection committee to carry out an assessment of the pre-selected candidates according to the selection criteria described in Section 3.

5.4. Verification of documents and scrutiny

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is established that the information in an application has been knowingly falsified or incorrect, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process. Candidates will also be disqualified if they:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

Prior to the assessment phase, the shortlisted candidates will be required to provide via email a copy of their documents proving their eligibility, mainly their academic diplomas and evidence of their professional experience clearly indicating the starting and finishing dates, the function(s) and the exact nature of the duties carried out.

Prior to the signature of the contract, the successful candidates must present original versions of documents proving the eligibility criteria and of their experience.

5.5. Reserve list

The selection committee will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list. This draft will be submitted to the Executive Director of ELA for approval. The adopted reserve list will be valid until 31 December 2023. The validity of the reserve list may be extended by decision of the Executive Director of ELA. The information on valid reserve lists of ELA is published on ELA's website.

Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by ELA (e.g. including a further interview with the Executive Director).

Candidates should note that the inclusion on the reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in ELA.

Other important information

6. General information

6.1. Equal opportunities

The Authority is an equal opportunity employer and strongly encourages applications from all candidates who fulfil the eligibility criteria and interested in the position. ELA ensures that its recruitment procedures do not discriminate on the grounds of gender, colour, race, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, nationality, age, sexual orientation or gender identity.

In case of a disability, please feel free to inform Human Resources at ELA RECRUITMENT recruitment@ela.europa.eu and indicate which arrangements or adjustments relating to your disability are necessary, so ELA can ensure your equal participation in the interviews and tests.

6.2. Selection committee

A selection committee is appointed for each selection procedure. The selection committee is composed of at least three (3) members, including a member designated by the Staff Committee.

Please note that the selection committee's internal proceedings are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. Under no circumstances should candidates approach the selection committee, either directly or indirectly, concerning the selection procedure. Any infringement of this rule will lead to the disqualification from the selection procedure.

6.3. Approximate timetable

The selection process may take some months to be completed. The selection committee intends to finalise the recruitment process for this vacancy by April 2023, with a view for the selected candidate to take office by June 2023.

The foreseen timeframe for the selection procedure will be updated on ELA's website.

6.4. Engagement and Conditions of employment

The decision on appointment will be taken by the Authority's Executive Director as the Authority Empowered to Conclude Contracts of Employment on the basis of the reserve list of most suitable candidates.

Before engaging a temporary agent, the Executive Director will examine whether the candidate has any personal interest such as to impair his/her independence or any other conflict of interest. The candidate will inform the Executive Director, using a specific form of any actual or potential conflict of interest<sup>12</sup>. If necessary, the Executive Director shall take any appropriate measures.

A contract may be offered for temporary agent pursuant to Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) for an initial period of 5 years, renewable once. After the second period, the contract may be renewed for an indefinite period. The jobholder will be subject to a probationary period of 9 months.

6.5. Interagency mobility

Filling a post by means of mobility between EU agencies in the grade bracket AD5-AD6 is also possible, with a view of attracting temporary staff 2(f) that are currently employed at other EU agencies. ELA is following the procedure for interagency mobility and engagement as outlined in the European Labour Authority Decision of 03.12.2019 laying down general implementing provisions on the procedure governing the engagement and use of temporary staff under Article 2(f) of the CEOS.

6.6. Job environment

The place of employment is Bratislava, Slovakia. Residence within reasonable distance of ELA's office is required in accordance with the Staff Regulations (Article 20).

The jobholder will work in a multicultural, respectful and appreciative environment, which offers the possibility to shape the work of the authority, where collaboration and open and constructive dialogue is encouraged, while building effective work relations.

Working time is based on a 40-hour working week. ELA offers flexible working arrangements such as teleworking, part-time work, and flexible working hours.

6.7. Pay and welfare benefits

The successful candidate who is offered a contract of employment will, on their entry into service, be placed in step 1 or 2 of grade AD6, according to the length of their professional experience.

The staff member's remuneration consists of a basic salary and allowances. It is paid in euro weighed down by the correction coefficient (in Slovakia the correction coefficient is currently 81,3% compared to Belgium).

The gross basic salary, after correction coefficient is applied, is as follows<sup>13</sup>:

Grade AD6	Step 1	Step 2
Monthly basic gross salary (without any allowances)	€ 5,092	€ 5,307

In addition to the basic salary, staff may be entitled to various allowances depending on their particular situation. These may include:

- Household allowance (e.g. if you have a dependent child or you are married and your spouse's income is below a defined threshold);
- Dependent child allowance (e.g. if you have a child under the age of 18 or between 18 and 26, if in specified training programme);
- Education allowances (Pre-school or Education allowance) or Payment of the education fees applicable to selected educational institutions;
- Expatriation allowance or foreign residence allowance (16% of the sum of basic salary and other applicable allowances) or foreign residence allowance (4 %).

The salary is subject to a Community tax deducted at source and is exempt from national tax. The salary package includes contributions to the EU social security and pension schemes. Candidates are invited to familiarise themselves with the employment conditions as stated in the Staff Regulations of Officials and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union.

Under certain circumstances, in particular where the jobholder is obliged to change his/her place of residence in order to take up employment, the Agency may also reimburse some expenses incurred on recruitment, notably removal expenses.

Additional benefits:

- Annual leave entitlement of two days per calendar month plus additional days for age, grade, 2.5 days' home leave, if applicable, and in addition on average 18 public holidays per year;
- Special leave granted for certain circumstances: e.g. removal, marriage, birth of a child, etc.;
- Various training opportunities;
- Social measures;
- EU Pension scheme (granted after 10 years of service);
- EU Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS), accident and occupational disease coverage, unemployment and invalidity allowance and insurance.

<sup>13</sup> Amounts are indicated for information purposes and may vary by the time the selected candidate takes up his/her duties following the annual revision of the remuneration.

6.8. Protection of personal data

Personal data shall be processed exclusively for the purpose of this selection procedure. The purpose of processing the data submitted by candidates is to evaluate applications in view of possible recruitment at ELA.

As the body responsible for organising the competition, the Authority ensures that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Union, L 295/39 of 21 November 2018). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data. In this regards, please see ELA Privacy Statement on selection procedures.

6.9. Appeal procedure

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials and Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union, at the following address:

European Labour Authority

For the attention of the Executive Director of ELA, Mr Cosmin BOIANGIU

Selection procedure: Ref. ELA/AD/2023/03

Landererova 12,
811 09 – Bratislava
SLOVAKIA

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations as modified by Council Regulation No 723/2004 of 22 March 2004 published in the Official Journal of the European Union L 124 of 27 April 2004 – <http://europa.eu/eur-lex>) starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.

Should the complaint be rejected, the candidate may request judicial review of the act adversely affecting him/her pursuant to Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and Article 91 of the Staff Regulations, before the General Court:

Court of Justice of the European Union

Rue du Fort Niedergrünwald
LUXEMBOURG

It is also possible to complain to the European Ombudsman. Any citizen of the European Union or any natural or legal person residing in a Member State may direct a complaint concerning instances of maladministration to the European Ombudsman pursuant to Article 228(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and in accordance with the conditions laid down in the Decision of the European Parliament of 9 March 1994 on the regulations and the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, published in the Official Journal of the European Union L113 of 4 May 1994:

European Ombudsman

1 Avenue du Président Robert Schuman – CS 30403

F- 67001 Strasbourg Cedex FRANCE

<https://www.ombudsman.europa.eu>

Please note that complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspensive effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging, respectively, a complaint or an appeal with the European Union Civil Service Tribunal under Article 236 of the EC Treaty. Any complaint to the ombudsman must be made within two years of receiving the Authority's final position on the matter.
