1.2 Institutional framework

a) National competent authority(ies) providing assistance to the persons enjoying temporary (or adequate) protection coming from Ukraine.

<tr>

<th>Name of the authority (in national language)</th>

b) Existence of a mechanism in place to coordinate the work of these national authorities with respect to persons enjoying temporary (or adequate) protection coming from Ukraine.

The Immigration Directorate of the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs works as the contact point. The persons concerned must fill in a Personal Data Sheet available on the Internet. Next, the Directorate will contact and invite them to an appointment for the purpose of submitting an application for temporary protection.

2.0 Possibility of changing the status

a) Difference between temporary protection status and other forms of adequate protection\(^3\) under national law, in respect of third country nationals and stateless persons coming from Ukraine.

Article 77 of Law 2015 No. 1 states that beneficiaries of temporary protection may, at any moment, apply for international protection. During the review of the request for international protection, the benefit of temporary protection cannot be combined with the status of applicant for international protection. If the international protection is not granted, the beneficiary of the temporary protection keeps the temporary protection for the remainder of the term of the temporary protection.

b) Possibility to file status change inside the territory without the requirement for the person to first leave the country or return to Ukraine from temporary protection or other forms of adequate protection to employment-based residence permit during the temporary protection regime and at the end of this regime (e.g. single permit for work, EU Blue Card for highly-qualified workers, seasonal workers, family reunification).

Law 2015 No. 1 does not address the status change. Article 72 states that the temporary protection does not grant any right to reside in Luxembourg according to the Law on the conditions of the entry and the residence of migrants in Luxembourg. Article 75 regulates the reunification of the family members, who benefited from temporary protection in another EU Member State. Article 79 regulates the voluntary renouncement of temporary protection and the voluntary and non-voluntary return of the beneficiary of temporary protection to the country of origin. There are some exemptions granted to people with health problems and to parents of children who attend school classes.

c) Relevant national legislation on changing the status (including the procedure to be followed).

\[N/A\]

d) Measures aiming to preclude registration of displaced persons in more than one Member State/EEA-EFTA country (see Article 26 of the Temporary Protection Directive).

According to Article 75(9) of Law 2015 No. 1, persons who are granted the benefit of temporary protection in another EU Member State, as an individual or a family member, automatically lose the benefit of temporary protection in Luxembourg and their temporary protection certificate ceases to be valid.

According to Article 79 of Law 2015 No. 1, beneficiaries of temporary protection are free to renounce the status and to voluntary return to their country of origin. Given the situation in their country of origin, they can return to Luxembourg as long as the temporary protection status does not end.

\[^3\]’Adequate protection’ under national law is referred to in Article 2(2) of the Council Decision as a possible alternative that may be offered by Member States to temporary protection and therefore does not have to entail benefits identical to those attached to temporary protection as provided for in Directive 2001/55/EC. Nevertheless, when implementing the Council Decision, Member States must respect the Charter of fundamental rights of the European Union and the spirit of Directive 2001/55/EC. The respect for human dignity and therefore a dignified standard of living (such as residency rights, access to means of subsistence and accommodation, emergency care and adequate care for minors) has to be ensured in respect of everyone.
3.0 Access to labour market (Article 12 of the Temporary Protection Directive)

a) Overview on how equal treatment on the labour market as regards working conditions is ensured for persons enjoying temporary (or adequate) protection from Ukraine.

Persons enjoying temporary protection do not need a specific work permit and have free access to the labour market for as long as their temporary protection certificate is valid. The principle of equal treatment applies.

b) Conditions applicable to persons enjoying temporary (or adequate) protection from Ukraine, (including the procedure to be followed):

I. The conditions regulating work permits/work authorisation, if required

Persons enjoying temporary protection do not need a specific work permit and have free access to the labour market for as long as their temporary protection certificate is valid.

Moreover, they are exempt from the temporary occupancy authorization provided for in Article 14(1) to (6) of Law 2015 No. 1.

II. Recognition of qualifications/diplomas

There are no specific issues identified for this question. General legislation applies.

III. Eligibility to receive assistance for job seekers (e.g., career counselling, skills assessment, locating appropriate job openings, etc.)

Persons enjoying temporary protection can register as jobseekers with the Agency for the Development of Employment (ADEM). They will be assisted and guided in the job search. They have access to a number of free services, such as guidance for the search for employment, employment measures and access to vocational training.

As a jobseeker registered with ADEM, they will have access to the:

- JobBoard, which means to all job offers registered with ADEM (public and restricted);
- ‘Work in Luxembourg’ portal, which contains job offers in various professions.

On the website of ADEM, under the heading ‘Finding job offers’, they will also find a list of private job sites.
IV. Availability of vocational training/educational opportunities for adults/practical workplace experience.

According to Article 14 (8) of the Law 2015 No. 1, beneficiaries of temporary protection have access to vocational training under the same conditions as Luxembourg nationals (Law of 19 December 2008 amending vocational training).

V. Any exceptions to the general law in force in the country applicable to remuneration and other conditions of (self-) employment

4.0 Social security, social welfare and means of subsistence assistance, as well as medical care (Article 13 of the Temporary Protection Directive)

I. Types of benefits with description and coverage

<tr>
<th>Social security</th>

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sickness benefits in kind</td>
</tr>

According to Article 1, point 22), of the Law of 10 May 2022 amending Articles 1 and 32 of the Social Security Code, beneficiaries of the temporary protection with the certificate provided for in Article 72 of the Law 2015 No. 1 have mandatory sickness and maternity insurance. Under this provision, immediate access to the social security system and especially the coverage of hospitalization costs and drugs through the ‘third-party payer scheme’ is guaranteed.

Costs

The State covers the social contributions regarding the beneficiaries of Article 1, point 22), Social Security Code. The State also covers the social contributions regarding the special provision for children provided in Article 1, point 13), Social Security Code.

Medical Care

In the explanatory statement of Bill N°8035 C, introduced in Parliament on 15 June 2022, people fleeing the war in Ukraine will have access to the following four medical services:

- the medical service for newcomers at the Emergency Centre for Initial Reception (Structure d’hébergement d’urgence, ‘SHUK’), open seven days a week;
- the Medical Centre (Maison Médicale) for people living outside the SHUK, open from Monday to Friday;
→ the Ligue Médico-Sociale with its services in Luxembourg, Esch and Ettelbruck. Each person arriving in Luxembourg must undergo a compulsory medico-social control within six weeks of arrival. 500 controls are organised per week;
→ a Single Window managed by the Health Directorate, which informs people about the various sites made available for primary care.

According to Law of 26 October 2022 on the Recruitment of Health Professionals for the Medical Care of the Beneficiaries of Temporary Protection in the Context of the Conflict between Russia and Ukraine, the above-mentioned medical services may recruit, under a fixed-term contract, doctors and paramedics under the statute of State employees. The health professionals must meet only one condition, namely they must prove that they are authorised to practise in Luxembourg. It is planned to recruit 30 full-time equivalent nurses, who will be added to the 158 nurses already active in the field.

Social welfare

The Government has set-up an emergency centre for the initial reception of persons fleeing the war in Ukraine. It is situated at the SHUK (Structure d’hébergement d’urgence au Kirchberg) in Luxembourg City. This centre provides shelter during the first couple of days, as well as food and items of primary necessity, for people wishing to request temporary protection in Luxembourg. The Minister for Foreign and European Affairs announced, on 12 May 2022, during an information meeting with residents of the Municipality of Luxembourg, that a new residential facility for people under temporary protection fleeing the war in Ukraine will be set up at a former building of the European Court of Justice at Kirchberg. Its capacity will be at the maximum of 1 200 beds. It will host families and isolated women and men, who had previously stayed at the SHUK. It will offer socio-educational support provided by agents of Caritas and the Red Cross. This residential facility will open progressively from Mid-May 2022 on.

In a press release of 27 December 2022, the Ministry for Foreign and European Affairs indicated that the National Reception Office (ONA) managed 68 accommodation facilities for 4 157 applicants and beneficiaries of international protection and for 1 125 beneficiaries of temporary protection coming from Ukraine. Between November 2021 and November 2022, the capacity of the ONA accommodation network was increased from 3 400 to 7 013 beds.

According to Article 14(9) of Law 2015 No. 2, beneficiaries of temporary protection have access to ‘the material reception conditions’ of the National Reception Office (ONA) defined in Article 2, point g), of the same Law.

Material reception conditions include:

▶ accommodation, food and clothing provided in kind or in the form of a financial allowance or bonus or by combining these three formulas;

▶ a monthly allowance; and

▶ access to medical care.

According to Article 14(7) of Law 2015 No. 2, minor children have access to the education system under the same conditions as Luxembourg nationals, especially regarding mandatory school attendance between the ages of 4 and 16 (Law of 6 February 2009). They are entitled, if necessary, to preparatory courses including language courses. Access to secondary education is still possible for those who have reached the age of majority during schooling.
II. Eligibility conditions

When a temporary protection certificate is issued, the National Reception Office (Office National d’Accueil – ONA) registers the persons at the Common Centre for Social Security (Centre Commun de la Sécurité Sociale ‘CCSS’) by transmitting their data for affiliation with the sickness insurance. The affiliation will have retroactive effect and will start, at the earliest, at the date of the application for the temporary protection status (from 4 March 2022). Affiliation will be limited in time according to the duration of the temporary protection certificate issued. Temporary protection status is granted in a first phase for an initial period of one year, until 4 March 2023. The initial period may be extended automatically by periods of six months, for a maximum of one year.

Family members

According to Article 7 of the Social Security Code, family members, like the spouse or partner, children and close relatives, of the insured person are entitled to derived rights.

There is a special provision regarding children under the age of 18 residing in Luxembourg, who are not otherwise insured and who are not covered by Article 7 Social Security Code (derived rights). According to Article 1, point 13), Social Security Code, they are mandatorily insured in the sickness and maternity insurance. This Article ensures full support for children from the first day.

III. Any exceptions to the general law in force in the country to access to social security systems or social welfare system relating to employed or self-employed activities

No exceptions exist.

5.0 Public support instruments

Overview of other public support instruments facilitating labour market participation, information about and enforcement of rights and entitlements for displaced persons.

Employers wishing to hire beneficiaries of temporary protection can contact the Employers Department at the Agency for the Development of Employment (ADEM) directly.

The Ministry of Labour, Employment and Social and Solidarity Economy, in collaboration with the Inspectorate for Labour and Mines (ITM) and the ADEM, has published a flyer with information on labour law, job search and registration with ADEM. Information is available in Ukrainian, French and English.

The Ministry of National Education established a Single Window for families, the Foreign Children’s School Service (SECAM). The school offer is mainly organised by six international public schools. As a first step, children will join reception classes with English as the vehicular language. Afterwards, they will attend regular international classes.

On 16 December 2022, the Minister of National Education together with ASTI, an NGO for immigrants, presented a dictionary in three languages to the press: Ukrainian, Luxemburgish and French, for the integration in Luxembourg of Ukrainian refugees. 5,000 copies were printed.

Since March 2022, Post Luxembourg has provided, together with the National Reception Office (ONA), aid to displaced persons from Ukraine in the form of a mobile free subscription and a free bank account and a free payment card. Once in possession of the certificate of temporary protection, displaced persons from Ukraine can appear at any point of sale of Post Telecom and benefit from a mobile subscription including unlimited calls from Luxembourg to Ukraine, mobile Internet, calls and SMS inside Luxembourg.
