Name: Mihai Nicolae UCA

Short bio:

I am a dedicated public servant with a distinguished career in labour inspection and workplace regulations. As the Deputy Inspector General of State in the Romanian Labor Inspection, I play a pivotal role in upholding labour standards and ensuring safe and fair working conditions for all citizens.

My extensive experience in labour law and workplace safety has made me an invaluable asset to the Labor Inspection. I have been instrumental in developing and implementing policies that safeguard the rights of workers and promote compliance among employers.

With a keen eye for detail and a passion for ensuring that workplaces adhere to legal standards, I have led numerous successful initiatives to improve working conditions, reduce occupational hazards, and address issues related to labour exploitation.

My commitment to ensuring social justice and equality in the labour force is evident in my tireless efforts to enforce labour laws effectively.

I hold a degree in Law, and my career is marked by a deep commitment to public service and the betterment of working conditions for all citizens.
