

Short BIO

ELA Management Board Members and Alternates

Country: Italy

Name: Maria Concetta Corinto

Short bio:

Executive manager of the Ministry of Labor and Social Policies since December 2010. She currently is the Head of the Unity for European and International Affairs of the Directorate-General for Labour and Industrial Relations which handles relations between Italy and the European institutions (Commission, Council, European Parliament) as well as with the International Labor Organization, for matters on labour conditions and rights of work within the competence of the Directorate General for Labor Relations and Industrial Relations of the Ministry of Labor and Social Policies.

She participated as a delegate of the Italian Government for the Ministry of Labor and of social policies at various sessions of the Conference of the International Labor Organization which takes place annually in June in Geneva and attended to numerous coordination meetings of European States in Brussels on ILO acts and documents and participated as delegate of the Italian Government in the different annual sessions of the ILO Governing body. She participated as delegate and expert for Italy to different Group's work meetings to implement and transposition of the European directive at national level. Ordinary Coordinates and chairs, as a substitute for the Director General, the National Tripartite Advisory Committee for the coordination of Italian participation in the activities of the International Labor Organization (UN Agency).

Delegate of Italian government in different sessions of Governmental Committee of European Council. She was a full member of the European Committee for the free movement of workers and a substitute member of the Board of Directors of the ELA, the European Labor Authority established with the European Regulation in 2019/2021.

She was Manager of Territorial labor Directorates in Italy, and was the holder of the General and Institutional Affairs Office of the National Council of Economy and Labor in the years 2012/2015.

She served in the Legislative Office of the Minister for Public Administration and Innovation of the Presidency of the Council of Ministers, in which she carried out legislative work on drafting legislative acts of the Government as well as at the offices of direct collaboration of the Minister for Regional Affairs of the Presidency of the Council of Ministers.

She has carried out teaching and research activities and has participated in various conferences in the fields of labor law and administrative law.