Area	Labour Mobility
Place of employment	Bratislava, Slovakia
Deadline for applications	15/10/2021, 12:00 (midday, Brussels time) 25/10/2021, 12:00 (midday, Brussels time)
Reserve list valid until	31 December 2022

The European Labour Authority

The European Labour Authority ('the Authority' or 'ELA') is a Union body in the area of crossborder labour mobility, currently in its initial start-up phase.

Its aim is to facilitate access for individuals and employers to information on their rights and obligations; support cooperation between EU countries in the cross-border enforcement of relevant Union law, including by facilitating joint inspections; and mediate and facilitate a solution in cases of cross-border disputes between national authorities.

The Authority should reach its full operational capacity by 2024. Further information on the Authority is available on its website: www.ela.europa.eu.

In accordance with Article 32 of the ELA founding Regulation (EU) 2019/1149, each Member State shall designate one National Liaison Officer as a seconded national expert to the Authority and to work at its seat. National Liaison Officers shall contribute to executing the tasks of the Authority, including by facilitating the cooperation and exchange of information and the support and coordination of inspections. They shall also act as national contact points for questions from their Member States and relating to their Member States, either by answering those questions directly or by liaising with their national administrations. National Liaison Officers shall be entitled to request and receive all relevant information from their Member States, as provided for by this Regulation, while fully respecting the national law or practice of their Member States, in particular as regards data protection and the rules on confidentiality.

Further to the decision of the Executive Director on ELA's internal organizational structure, a Cooperation and NLOs Office was created, which falls under the Cooperation Support Unit.

The job

The Authority is launching a vacancy notice with a view to establishing a reserve list of Temporary Agents for the position of Head of Cooperation and National Liaison Officers (NLOs) Office (Head of Sector).

1. Profile

Reporting to the Head of the Cooperation Support Unit, the Head of Cooperation and NLOs Office (Head of Sector) will lead and coordinate the Cooperation and NLOs Office sector while contributing to the operational tasks of the Authority.

1.1 Tasks

The Head of Cooperation and NLOs Office (Head of Sector)'s tasks will include, inter alia:

- coordinating the Cooperation and NLOs Office, ensuring and facilitating close cooperation, information exchange and communication with all ELA units so that NLOs are informed in a timely manner of activities that may be of interest to their Member States;
- leading and guiding the NLOs in the successful performance of their role and tasks, in particular their cooperation and liaison functions, and other actions as defined in the annual Work Programme, providing regular constructive feedback to NLOs on overall progress in line with defined objectives and standards;
- designing, implementing and executing efficient workflows and procedures for the smooth functioning of the NLOs Office;
- facilitating and ensuring effective internal and external vertical and horizontal communication flows;
- maintaining objectives, records and reporting in relation to the work of the NLOs Office;
- contributing to the drafting of the Single Programming Document, its yearly Work Programme, Annual Activity Report, in relation to the area of responsibility;
- proposing actions and initiatives to be included in the Work Programme which support the achievement of the unit's objectives, taking into account the views of the Management Board;
- ensuring the successful implementation of the Work Programme including ensuring sound financial management for the budgetary allocations in relation to the area of responsibility;
- providing the necessary input to briefings, papers and documents to the ELA management and the ELA Management Board;
- building productive and cooperative working relationships with ELA's stakeholders;
- ensuring enhanced cooperation among Member States and facilitating ELA's cooperation with national counterparts with the contribution of NLOs;
- setting up and maintaining a reliable network of contact points in Member States, including national authorities, social partners and other stakeholders;

- fostering strong and open cooperation with national authorities, EU institutions and other relevant stakeholders in the implementation of the Authority's mission and tasks;
- managing relations and representing ELA in meetings with external stakeholders;
- Performing any other related task requested by the line management in the interest of the service.

Before applying, you should carefully check whether you meet all the eligibility criteria.

Only complete applications registered via EU CV Online before the deadline will be considered. Applications must include a motivation letter and a CV, both submitted in English to be considered.

To be able to apply via EU CV Online, you must first create an account or sign in to an existing account. If not done already, you must first fill in the electronic CV. Once the CV is completed, you may choose and apply to the call for expressions of interest of your choice. You are advised to fill out ALL relevant fields of the application. Please note that the selection committee can only take into account the information provided by the candidate via EU CV Online.

It is your responsibility to complete your online registration in time. We strongly advise you not to wait until the last few days before applying, since heavy internet traffic or a problem with the internet connection could lead to your online registration being interrupted before you complete it, thereby obliging you to repeat the whole process.

On completion of the online registration, you will receive on screen a registration number, which you must note. This will be your reference number in all matters concerning your application. If you do not receive a number, it means that your application has not been registered.

After a correct submission of an application, you will receive an automated acknowledgement of receipt of your application to the email account indicated in your application. It is your responsibility to verify that you provided the correct e-mail address.

All technical questions concerning EU CV Online must be sent through the contact page of EU CV Online.

Once the deadline has passed, you will no longer be able to apply.

No supporting documents are required at this stage – these will be required in a later stage.

Deadline for applications: ~~15 October 2021 at midday (12:00, Brussels time)~~
25 October 2021 at midday (12:00, Brussels time)

If you have a disability that prevents you from registering online, you may submit your application (CV and letter of motivation) on paper by registered mail<sup>8</sup>, postmarked no later than the closing date for registration. All subsequent communication between the Commission and you will be by post. In this case, you must enclose with your application a certificate attesting your disability, issued by a recognised body. You should also set out on a separate sheet of paper any special arrangements you think are needed to make it easier for you to take part in the selection.

If you require more information, please send an e-mail to: recruitment@ela.europa.eu

5. Steps of the selection procedure

5.1 Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the selection committee will check the submitted applications against the eligibility criteria described in Section 2. Applications satisfying these conditions will then be initially assessed against the selection criteria under Section 3.

5.2 Initial assessment of the eligible applications

The selection committee will assess each eligible application with reference to the selection criteria (“Essential” and “Advantageous”) described in Section 3.

Upon completion of the assessment, the Selection Committee will establish a shortlist of candidates to be invited to the assessment phase.

The remaining candidates will be notified by email that their application will no longer be taken into consideration to this selection procedure.

5.3 The assessment phase

Following the initial assessment of the applications, the most suitable candidates for the post will be invited to the assessment phase, which will be held online. The assessment phase will be conducted in English.

This phase involves an interview with the selection committee and one or more test(s) related to the field of the vacancy. This phase will enable the selection committee to carry out an assessment of the pre-selected candidates according to the selection criteria described in Section 3.

Details of the date and time of the assessment will be communicated to the shortlisted candidates in due time.

Candidates will be requested to submit originals or certified copies of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience, clearly indicating the starting and finishing dates, the function(s) and the exact nature of the duties carried out.

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate(s) will be required to provide original versions of documents proving the eligibility criteria.

5.4 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The candidates' application will be checked against supporting documents provided in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is established that the information in an application has been knowingly falsified or incorrect, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process. Candidates will also be disqualified if they:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.5 Reserve list

The selection committee will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list. This draft will be submitted to the Executive Director of ELA for approval. The adopted reserve list will be valid until 31.12.2022. The validity of the reserve list may be extended by decision of the Executive Director of ELA.

Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by ELA (e.g. including a further interview with the Executive Director).

Candidates should note that the inclusion on the reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in ELA.

Other important information

6. General information

6.1 Equal opportunities

The Authority is an equal opportunity employer and strongly encourages applications from all candidates who fulfill the eligibility criteria and interested in the position. ELA ensures that its recruitment procedures do not discriminate on the grounds of gender, colour, race, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, nationality, age, sexual orientation or gender identity.

In case of a disability, please feel free to inform Human Resources at ELA RECRUITMENT <recruitment@ela.europa.eu> and indicate which arrangements or adjustments relating to your disability are necessary, so ELA can ensure your equal participation in the interviews and tests.

6.2 Selection committee

A selection committee is appointed for each selection procedure. The selection committee is composed of at least 3 members, including a member designated by the Staff Committee<sup>9</sup>.

Please note that the selection committee's internal proceedings are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. Under no circumstances should candidates approach the selection committee, either directly or indirectly, concerning the selection procedure. Any infringement of this rule will lead to the disqualification from the selection procedure.

<sup>9</sup> As ELA does not have its own Staff Committee at this stage, the European Commission Central Staff Committee nominates a member to ELA's selection procedures.

6.3 Approximate timetable

The selection process may take some months to be completed. The foreseen timeframe for the selection procedure will be updated on ELA's website.

The selection committee intends to finalise the recruitment process for this vacancy by November 2021, with a view for the selected candidate to take office January 2022.

Once the pre-assessment phase is completed, shortlisted candidates will be invited to the assessment phase. The remaining candidates will be notified, by email, that their application will no longer be taken into consideration.

6.4 Engagement and Conditions of employment

The decision on appointment will be taken by the Authority's Executive Director as the Authority Empowered to Conclude Contracts of Employment on the basis of the reserve list of most suitable candidates.

Before engaging a temporary agent, the Executive Director will examine whether the candidate has any personal interest such as to impair his/her independence or any other conflict of interest. The candidate will inform the Executive Director, using a specific form of any actual or potential conflict of interest<sup>10</sup>. If necessary, the Executive Director shall take any appropriate measures.

A contract may be offered for temporary agent pursuant to Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) for an initial period of 5 years, renewable once. After the second period, the contract may be renewed for an indefinite period. The jobholder will be subject to a probationary period of 9 months.

6.5 Job environment

The place of employment is Bratislava, Slovakia.

The jobholder will work in a multicultural, respectful and appreciative environment, which offers the possibility to shape the work of the authority, where collaboration and open and constructive dialogue is encouraged, while building effective work relations.

Working time is based on a 40-hour working week. ELA offers flexible working arrangements such as teleworking, part-time work, and flexible working hours.

6.6 Pay and welfare benefits

The successful candidate who is offered a contract of employment will, on their entry into service, be placed in step 1 or step 2 of the AD9 grade, according to the length of their professional experience.

<sup>10</sup> In compliance with Article 11 of the Staff Regulations of officials and Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union.

The staff member's remuneration consists of a basic salary and allowances. It is paid in Euro weighed down by the correction coefficient (in Slovakia the correction coefficient is currently 80,6% compared to Belgium).

The gross basic salary, after correction coefficient is applied, is as follows<sup>11</sup>:

Grade AD9	Step 1	Step 2
Monthly basic gross salary (without any allowances)	€ 6.728,11	€ 7.011,91

In addition to the basic salary, staff may be entitled to various allowances depending on their particular situation. These may include:

- Household allowance (e.g. if you have a dependent child or you are married and your spouse's income is below a defined threshold);
- Dependent child allowance (e.g. if you have a child under the age of 18 or between 18 and 26, if in specified training programme);
- Education allowances (Pre-school or Education allowance) or Payment of the education fees applicable to selected educational institutions;
- Expatriation allowance or foreign residence allowance (16% of the sum of basic salary and other applicable allowances) or foreign residence allowance (4 %).

The salary is subject to a Community tax deducted at source and is exempt from national tax. The salary package includes contributions to the EU social security and pension schemes. Candidates are invited to familiarise themselves with the employment conditions as stated in the Staff Regulations of Officials and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union.

Under certain circumstances, in particular where the jobholder is obliged to change his/her place of residence in order to take up employment, the Agency may also reimburse some expenses incurred on recruitment, notably removal expenses.

Additional benefits:

- Annual leave entitlement of two days per calendar month plus additional days for age, grade, 2.5 days' home leave, if applicable, and in addition on average 18 public holidays per year;
- Special leave granted for certain circumstances: e.g. removal, marriage, birth of a child, etc.;
- Various training opportunities;
- EU Pension scheme (granted after 10 years of service);
- EU Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS), accident and occupational disease coverage, unemployment and invalidity allowance and insurance.

6.7 Protection of personal data

Personal data shall be processed exclusively for the purpose of this selection procedure. The purpose of processing the data submitted by candidates is to evaluate applications in view of possible recruitment at ELA.

As the body responsible for organising the competition, the Authority ensures that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Union, L 295/39 of 21 November 2018). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data. In this regards, please see the ELA Privacy Statement on selection procedures.

6.8 Appeal procedure

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials and Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union, at the following address:

European Labour Authority

For the attention of the Executive Director of ELA, Mr Cosmin BOIANGIU

Selection procedure: Ref. ELA/AD/2021/10
Landererova 12,
811 09 – Bratislava
SLOVAKIA

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations as modified by Council Regulation No 723/2004 of 22 March 2004 published in the Official Journal of the European Union L 124 of 27 April 2004 – <http://europa.eu/eur-lex>) starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.

Should the complaint be rejected, the candidate may request judicial review of the act adversely affecting him/her pursuant to Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and Article 91 of the Staff Regulations, before the General Court:

Court of Justice of the European Union

Rue du Fort Niedergrünwald
LUXEMBOURG

It is also possible to complain to the European Ombudsman. Any citizen of the European Union or any natural or legal person residing in a Member State may direct a complaint concerning instances of maladministration to the European Ombudsman pursuant to Article 228(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and in accordance with the conditions laid down in the Decision of the European Parliament of 9 March 1994 on the regulations and the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, published in the Official Journal of the European Union L113 of 4 May 1994:

European Ombudsman

1 Avenue du Président Robert Schuman – CS 30403

F- 67001 Strasbourg Cedex FRANCE

<https://www.ombudsman.europa.eu>

Please note that complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspensive effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging, respectively, a complaint or an appeal with the European Union Civil Service Tribunal under Article 236 of the EC Treaty. Any complaint to the ombudsman must be made within two years of receiving the Authority's final position on the matter.
