1. Introduction

The European Labour Authority (hereafter 'ELA') is committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. ELA collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001).

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data, in the context of "ELA launch event ssc campaign". It explains the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

The information in relation to processing operation "ELA launch event ssc campaign", a lunch event where ELA will kick-off the information and awareness- raising campaign on social security coordination. The event brings together Members of the Administrative Commission, social partners, relevant stakeholders, policy makers and journalists. The event will include a panel discussion and showcasing of the campaign material and is undertaken by the "Governance and Coordination Unit" is presented below.

In this specific event, we are organising:

Event organised by the ELA – outside ELA premises.

- Personal data are published on a publicly available website.

- Reports (including a presence list) are NOT shared between participants and organisations.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Purpose of the processing operation: "Governance and Coordination Unit" collects and further processes your personal data to provide you with information about the "ELA launch event ssc campaign" (before, during and after) and to process your application for participation in that "ELA launch event ssc campaign"

Live web-streaming and audio-visual recording at the "ELA launch event ssc campaign" of the speakers, organisers and participants, as well as photographs of the speakers and panoramic photographs of participants and organisers will be taken and published in the context of the "ELA launch event ssc campaign" at ELA's website and social media channels (i.e. LinkedIn, X (former Twitter)). This process of personal data is covered by Record 'DPR-ELA-2022-0026 Personal Data on Social Media'.

The audience or non-speaker participants are not photographed individually or in groups. They could also appear in panoramic photographs of the whole event/audience.

Participants that do not wish to be part of the above web-streaming and recording/publishing activities have the possibility to object to processing. By notifying ELA staff present at the event, who will ensure that the participant will not be recorded/photographed.

Your personal data will not be used for any automated decision-making including profiling. For platforms and tools used to organise and manage digital events, the following records will apply:

- Webex platform: Service de Web Conference (Webex), European Labour Authority Record DPR-ELA-2023-0005 ELA meetings using Webex
- Microsoft Teams: EC M365 environment, European Labour Authority Record DPR-ELA-2022-0012 Office 365.

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data

For the ELA Staff/staff of the Member States:

We process your personal data, because, according to Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body.

The processing operations on personal data, linked to the organisation, management, follow-up and promotion of the “ELA launch event ssc campaign” (including web-streaming, photos, audio-visual recording) are necessary for the management and functioning of the European Labour Authority, as mandated by the Treaties and Regulation (EU) 2019/1149 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 June 2019 establishing a European Labour Authority. The processing operations on personal data of the speakers for the “ELA launch event ssc campaign” with whom a contract is concluded, are carried out in line with the contractual provisions. Consequently, that processing is necessary and lawful under Article 5(1)(c) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 (processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract).

For external participants:

Your consent is required:

- ☐ the processing of your personal data relating to your dietary requirements and/or access requirements;
- ☐ the publication of your personal data contained in minutes, reports, powerpoint presentations or relevant documentation used during meetings on a publicly available website or printed to illustrate communication material, photo albums and/or videos.

6. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

All personal data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, databases, uploaded batches of data, etc.) are stored either on the servers of the European Labour Authority or of its contractors.

ELA’s contractors are bound by a specific contractual clause for any processing operations of your data on behalf of ELA, and by the confidentiality obligations deriving directly from the General Data Protection Regulation in the EU Member States (‘GDPR’ Regulation \(EU\) 2016/679.)

In order to protect your personal data, ELA has put in place a number of technical and organisational measures in place. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation.

7. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data is provided to ELA staff responsible for carrying out this processing operation and to authorised staff according to the “need to know” principle. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

When explicitly agreed by you, some of your personal data (publications of minutes, reports, powerpoint presentations or relevant documentation used during meetings, name and affiliation of participants and /or speakers) will be published on a publicly available website or printed to illustrate communication material, photo albums, etc.

For digital events, the privacy statements of the platforms and tools used to organise and manage the event, apply.

Please note that pursuant to Article 3(13) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 public authorities (e.g. Court of Auditors, EU Court of Justice) which may receive personal data in the framework of a particular inquiry in accordance with Union or Member State law shall not be regarded as recipients. The further processing of those data by those public authorities shall be in compliance with the applicable data protection rules according to the purposes of the processing.

The information we collect will not be given to any third party, except to the extent and for the purpose we may be required to do so by law.

8. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a 'data subject' under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access, your personal data and to rectify them in case your personal data are inaccurate or incomplete. Where applicable, you have the right to erase your personal data, to restrict the processing of your personal data, to object to the processing, and the right to data portability.

For ELA staff/staff of the Member States:

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which is lawfully carried out pursuant to Article 5(1)(a) on grounds relating to your particular situation.

For external participants:

You have consented to provide your personal data to "Governance and Coordination Unit" for the present processing operation. You can withdraw your consent at any time by notifying the Data Controller. The withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before you have withdrawn the consent.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Data Controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 9 below.

Where you wish to exercise your rights in the context of one or several specific processing operations, please provide their description (i.e. their Record reference(s) as specified under Heading 10 below) in your request.
