Name: Elisabeth Florus

Short bio:

I am a lawyer and the Deputy Head of the department for European and International Social Policy and Labour Law.

I have been working in the field of European Labour Law, Anti-Discrimination and International Social Policy for more than 30 years, currently in the Ministry of Labour and Economy. Due to the increasing importance of the issue, with emphasis in particular on working conditions of posted workers.

Another focus of my activities is the European Social Charter of the Council of Europe. I have been a member of the Governmental Committee of the Social Charter for many years and I coordinate all obligations arising from the ratification of this human rights treaty.
